(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Norfolk, Va., December 1.-Probably the strangest burial ever heard of in Norfolk took place yesterday when the body of J. Lloyd Gordon, a wellto-do but eccentric citizen, was interred in Elmwood Cemetery

Mr. Gordon asked that he be not buried in a coffin, but that his bedy simply be wrapped in a cloth and laid to rest in Mother Earth with only a board covering his face. The request was complied with, to the extent that a grave was dug coffin-shaped and the two sides of a coffin-shaped box were placed on the sides of the grave. There was no bottom, and the body was laid to rest on Mother Earth, just as the decedent had asked A box-top was neatly laid over the sides of the grave, the dirt thrown in and the grave covsimply be wrapped in a cloth and laid the dirt thrown in and the grave covers. The body was carried in an un-dertaker's basket, and at the cemetery was lifted from the basket and de-was lifted from the basket and deposited in the ground.

While on his deathbed Mr. Gordon requested his doctor to "cut him open from his chin down," after death. He requested this physician to cut into his heart, to ascertain the cause of his death. His request was complied with

His Remarks Our Agent's Reply and What Happened

About three years ago he declined to insure, telling our Agent he had just discontinued $4,000 in another company, as he wanted "to use his money to get some pleasures out of life."

Our Agent said: "You haven't any guarantee of your life for a single day. THE DAY MAY COME WHEN YOU CAN'T GET INSURANCE."

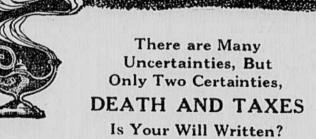

Some months ago he APPLIED to the Life Insurance Company of Virginia for insurance, but HIS HEALTH HAD BECOME IMPAIRED and he was declined. A little later this gentleman and his wife both died, his wife four weeks before he did, and after his death HIS LITTLE CHILDREN WERE TAKEN TO THE ORPHAN'S HOME.

In view of which we say, look out for this Company's ad. in Thursday's Times-Dispatch, AND OBSERVE THE PICTURE.
